

IN.VISIBLE PARADIGMS

TRANSFORMATIVE SPACES FOR WHITE ALLIES

WHO WE ARE

In.Visible Paradigms is an woman of color owned and run anti-oppression organization seeks to inform and transform white allies to better integrate themselves into the anti-oppression community, work, and movement. We specialize in curating training and consulting spaces for allies emerging or seeking deepened personal growth in their anti-racism journey. We engage directly with oppressive practices and white supremacy in order to recognize our intimate role in unlearning and disrupting it. Our process requires participants, alumni, and prospective clients to step into powerful learning opportunities that are interconnected with internal, interpersonal, ideological, and institutions dimensions of their own commitment.

OUR WORK IS ROOTED IN

-  Growth - Transformation as a personal and collective practice
-  Accountability - Change doesn't happen in solation
-  Recognition - Deep reflection with commitment to decolonized growth

WHERE WE CAN SUPPORT

We offer robust opportunities of growth to support your organization to realize its role in anti-oppression. We move forward with our clients to activate, integrate and deepen change along our process of transformation. We collaborate and strategize growth rather than maintain client-consultant binary. We work with Boards, Leadership, emerging or existing DEI Committees, small and medium size organizaitons.

CURRENTLY DISRUPTING

We share our current commitment with you to remain accountable to our values and practices. We are currently disrupting practices that center oppressive or ineffective habits such as; False sense of, Urgency, Perfectionism, Either/or Thinking. We hope to cross-pollinate our insights and connects with you!
